

BROOKE REINSCH

Staff Accountant
Jefferson City

breinsch@hbstrategies.us

Brooke serves as the staff accountant for HBS, actively supporting the Chief Financial Officer in managing financial records, preparing reports, and ensuring the accuracy of financial statements. She began her career at HBS as a lobbying intern in the Jefferson City office, where she assisted the Missouri team by monitoring legislative hearings, leading reporting initiatives, and supporting campaign finance efforts. Brooke's strong grasp of accounting principles, keen attention to detail, and ability to collaborate effectively in a fast-paced environment makes her a valuable asset to the team.

In 2022, Brooke was named one of the Missouri Times' 30 Under 30, an honor recognizing emerging leaders in the political arena.

Brooke earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri.

