

AMY BLUNT

GENERAL COUNSEL FOR COMPLIANCE
PRINCIPAL

Missouri

Amy has extensive experience in matters of political campaigns and government affairs, having served elected officials in a number of high-level positions and advising C-suite leaders with building comprehensive government engagement strategies. Missouri Lawyers Weekly noted when recognizing Amy on its annual Power List, “Amy Blunt has the pulse on compliance in campaign finance and lobbying laws at all levels of government.”

Possessing in-depth knowledge of campaign and election law, Amy also delivers expert insight to candidates running for public office and businesses that seek to engage in political activities. Her background includes serving as a consultant and general counsel for numerous political committees at the local, state and federal levels. Utilizing her expertise, Amy works with HB Strategies clients to ensure compliance with campaign finance and lobbying regulations at all tiers of government.

In addition to contributing her expertise to the HB Strategies team, Amy also has served as compliance and ethics counsel to multiple candidates and for Members of the United States Congress.

Prior to joining HB Strategies, Amy practiced law for more than fifteen years, until launching her consulting practice in 2009 that helped corporations and nonprofits achieve public policy goals through targeted advocacy and government relations.

Amy earned a bachelor’s from the University of Missouri and a J.D. from the University of Missouri School of Law.

