

MADDIE MCMILLIAN GREEN
DEPUTY GENERAL COUNSEL FOR CONTRACTING
PRINCIPAL

Missouri

An experienced attorney and successful advocate, Maddie is known in Jefferson City for her ability to get things done in the most complicated of legal and legislative circumstances. She previously served as Deputy Attorney General for Policy in the Missouri Attorney General's Office, advising the Attorney General on policy and legislation, and developing and managing the office's outreach initiatives. Prior to this role, she served as Assistant Attorney General for Special Litigation, handling high-profile litigation at the state and federal level.

Maddie began her career in the Missouri Governor's Office, serving two governors and working closely with the executive cabinet. Maddie earlier served as chief of staff to the First Lady in the Missouri Governor's Office, where she worked closely with the governor's policy and legislative teams on issues including foster care, adoption, and child welfare advocacy.

Maddie earned a juris doctorate from the University of Missouri School of Law, where she was twice published in the Missouri Law Review and worked in the Mizzou Law Veterans Clinic. Before law school, she graduated from the University of Missouri with degrees in economics and political science.

Maddie serves on the Missouri CASA Association Board of Directors, the University of Missouri Kinder Institute on Constitutional Democracy Alumni Council, and the University of Missouri Kappa Alpha Theta Advisory Board. In 2022, she participated in the Missouri Chamber of Commerce and Industry's Leadership Missouri program.
